

LEGATEE OF A. T. STEWART.

William P. Smith, Once Steward to Mrs. Stewart, at Law.

Dues His Wife and Daughter to Get Back His House.

Judge Dugro, of the Superior Court, today is hearing the suit of William P. Smith against his daughter, Mrs. Margaret A. Thomson, and his wife, Mrs. Eleanor Smith. It is a suit to have a deed set aside to property at 115 East Thirty-fifth street.

Mrs. Smith is seventy-six years old. He entered the employment of the late A. T. Stewart, and remained until his death. Mr. Smith had charge of the servants and other affairs of the household in the marble mansion on Fifth avenue.

Upon the death of Mr. Stewart, the plaintiff received a legacy and remained with the millionaire's widow as steward. The house in East Thirty-fifth street, fully furnished, was given to him by Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. Smith alleges that he received the house and lot as a gift on April 1, 1877, as a home for himself and family. He claims that on June 12, 1881, he was induced by his daughter (Mrs. Thompson) to transfer the property to her.

He claims his daughter has failed to keep her agreement and asks the Court to set aside the deed.

Mrs. Thompson claims she has never refused to support him, and has frequently offered him a home with her. Regarding the transfer of the property, she alleges that her father mortgaged it for $5,000 with the Union Trust Savings Bank. When the latter began foreclosure proceedings she satisfied the mortgage, and it was for that the property was deeded to her.

Mr. Smith was the first witness called.

SENT HOME TO HER TEETH.

Martha Lindsay Condon's Speak With Her Master.

A smooth-faced old woman, with ringlets and a fresh countenance, was arraigned in Yorkville Court this morning as Martha Lindsay for drunkenness.

"What have you got to say to this, Martha?" demanded Justice McMahon.

The nose and chin puffed the folded lips, unfurled, the old woman blinked hard and worked her shoulders but made no sound.

The matron says that she can't talk without her teeth," explained the policeman. "She left them at home."

"I won't take a man's advantage of you, Martha," said the Judge, while the crowd laughed. "Go home to your teeth."

Board of Electrical Control.

At a meeting of the Board of Electrical Control in the Mayor's office today, Commissioner Kew was asked to investigate the application for a franchise by the Special Fire Alarm Signal Company.

President Pierce acknowledged that the company had been doing business for twelve years without a franchise.

The Metropolitan Telegraph Company was granted a franchise to build a subway under the Harlem ship canal.

A franchise was granted to the Madison Square Electric Company, as the successor of the defunct Thomson-Houston Company.

DROWNED IN CONESUS LAKE.

Peculiar Accident by Which Two Men Lost Their Lives.

GENESEE, N. Y., Dec. 5.—An accident occurred at Conesus Lake last night by which two men, named Campbell and McCurdy, residents of this town, lost their lives.

They were accompanied by another man, John Falls, who escaped. He says they were all standing up in the boat when it suddenly sank beneath them. That is all he can tell about the accident. He hung on to the boat and floated to the shore.

The water is very deep where the accident occurred, and the bodies have not yet been recovered. The drowned men were well known about the lake.

HURT IN A POWER-HOUSE.

A Block Slips and Throws Several Men Around.

Joseph Fitzgerald, of 342 East Forty-fifth street, was dangerously hurt in the new cable power-house in Twenty-fifth street, near Third avenue, at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Fitzgerald, John Burke, of Brooklyn, and a number of employees were moving a heavy iron beam when the blocking slipped. Fitzgerald's ankles were crushed.

He was removed to Bellevue Hospital. Burke's left foot was badly injured. He went home, after being cared for by an ambulance surgeon.

Runaway Team Blows to Bits.

ST. MARKS, N. Y., Dec. 5.—A. L. Johnson left here for the oil fields last night with fifty gallons of nitro-glycerine for shooting oil wells. When six miles from here the team ran away, throwing Johnson out and hurting him slightly.

A quarter of a mile further the glycerine was exploded by the jar of the wagon. The explosion was heard and felt forty miles away. A hole ten feet deep was torn in the solid ledge of rock over which the wagon was passing. Thus far no part of the wreck except a piece of horse collar has been found.

Had an Unlucky Fall.

Charles T. Stewart, connected with C. H. Pepper & Co., of 1219 Broadway, was found at 5 o'clock this morning leaning against a lamp-post at Christopher and Hudson streets. He had three cuts on his head, evidently the result of a fall. He was removed to the Hudson Street Hospital.

This Is St. Nicholas Day.

This is St. Nicholas Day, and the fags are flying over City Hall. The survival of this custom recalls the Dutch origin of the city. In many of its festive aspects St. Nicholas Day is to the Hollanders what Christmas is to most other Christian nations, and recent immigrants from Holland still celebrate it, as well as the aristocratic descendants of the men who founded New Amsterdam. The St. Nicholas Society will have its annual dinner to-night at Delmonico's.

Senator Daniels and the Ministry.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 5.—The rumor that Senator Daniels was to enter the ministry brings out a statement from Dr. John B. Lafferty, a prominent divine of the Methodist Church, to the effect that Senator Daniels, when a lad, felt a call to preach the gospel, and would have done so had he not entered the army when only sixteen years old, and so distinguished himself that he was forced into public life when the war ended.

ANNOYED THOMAS MURPHY.

The Evangelist Afraid He Would Be Shot by Mr. Clark.

MOUNT VERNON, Dec. 5.—Charles H. Clark was a prisoner before Judge Appell to-day. Last night Clark attended a revival meeting conducted by Evangelist Thomas Murphy in the Opera House in Mount Vernon. Clark and Murphy have been unfriendly. It was rumored that Clark intended to shoot the Evangelist. When Clark moved towards the platform he was arrested.

When searched, he had two loaded revolvers. He is a widower and has five children. When Mr. Murphy conducted services in New Rochelle he and Clark had trouble. When Murphy came to Mount Vernon Clark followed, and had circulars printed denouncing the evangelist. These circulars read in part:

"Murphy acts the part of a schoolboy. He resorts to abuse. He said to me he had a stinking pride. He made me out a jackass. I can convince Murphy he is a fanatic."

When Clark was arraigned to-day his father and mother pleaded for him. Judge Appell discharged Clark on a promise not to annoy Murphy any more.

SOUGHT DEATH ON THE "L."

Miss Annie Clark Cut Up by a Flying Train.

Miss Annie Clark, a daughter of John J. Clark, of Clark Bros., who own a number of restaurants in different parts of the city, was run over and had her leg cut off by a Manhattan Elevated train on the Sixth avenue road at the Seventy-second street station last evening.

Miss Clark has been suffering from melancholia, and was released from the Long Island Home at Amityville four weeks ago.

Disappointment in love affected her mind. She has made several attempts to commit suicide. Miss Clark told Dr. Annals that she deliberately jumped in front of the train. Miss Clark was alive this morning, but her recovery is despaired of.

UNITED BY A MURDER.

Lawrence Leach Will See that His Brother Has a Fair Trial.

Richard H. Leach, of 412 West Forty-ninth street, who is charged with killing his wife and attempting to cut his throat, was taken from Bellevue Hospital to Yorkville Court to-day to plead. He has been a patient in the prison ward since Nov. 10. The reports of the crime in the papers were read by Lawrence H. Leach, of Washington, D. C., an employee in one of the Departments.

The brothers were separated in infancy, and Richard was put in the Catholic Institute of St. Patrick at Baltimore. He drifted to this city and married.

Lawrence remained in Washington and became fairly well off. Lawrence wrote the authorities at Bellevue, with the result that his brother's name and initials were removed from the prison records. Lawrence will see that his brother has a fair trial.
